

Holiday Break Game

Cut the cards out, put them face down, shuffle them and have each family member pick one and answer it. After discussing answers, make a plan together on some holiday break activities you can do.

If you could try a new activity that you've never done over break, what would it be and why?

What do you not want to see happen on holiday break?

Name one local store, attraction, park or other place nearby that you've never visited. Why haven't you been there yet?

What's your favorite holiday tradition for the upcoming holiday?

What is your favorite thing to do in your house?

What's the worst thing about being bored?

Name one person you'd like to spend time with over the holiday break.

What thing that you normally do on school days would you like to skip over the holiday break?

Name a food you'd like to try over winter break.

What activity have you only tried once that you'd like to do again?

What's the coolest thing you've ever done when you were bored?

What's your favorite memory of past holiday breaks?

What are your friends doing over holiday break?

Do you find it easy or hard to come up with things to do when you're bored? Why do you think that's the case?

If you could go anywhere on holiday break, where would it be and why?
